VOL. XI.

RENO, WASHOE COUNTY, NEVADA, TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 1881.

NO. 151.

ROUND ABOUT:

The tax levy for Clark county is 21 mills on the dollar.

The Junction City mills have distributed sacks for 170,000 bushels of wheat.

Tuesday, last week, as the train came from Lemoore on its way to Goshen, obstructions were found on the track, about 2 1/4 miles west of Hanford, consisting of seven or eight willow posts about four inches in diameter.

The workshops at the Oregon State Penitentiary were burned to the ground recently, involving a loss to the State of some $25,000, with no insurance. Fears were apprehended that the convicts would make an outbreak. They did not, however, and rendered efficient aid in saving the stock.

How to Secure Health.

It is strange any one will suffer from degeneration brought on by impure blood, when SCOTT'S EMERALD AND STILLINGIA, or BLOOD AND LIVER SYRUP will secure health to the physical organization. It is a strengthening syrup, pleasant to take, and the BEST BLOOD PURIFIER ever discovered, curing Scrofula, Syphilis, disorders, weakness of the Kidneys, Erysipelas, Malaria, Nervous disorders, Debility, Bilious complaints and diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys, Stomach, Skin, etc.

BAKER'S PAIN PASTORAL cures pain in Man and Beast.

DR. ROGERS' WORM SYRUP instantly destroys WORMS.

The ladies of Reno will save money by buying their Toilet Soap, Perfumery, Hair, Tooth and Nail brushes at Osburn & Shoemaker's, as this firm have just brought from the East the best assortment of those articles ever offered to the people of Reno, which they are selling at prices lower than ever.

Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint.

It is not worth the small price of 75 cents to free yourself of every symptom of these distressing complaints. If you think so call at our store and get a bottle of Shiloh's Vitalizer. Every bottle has a printed guarantee on it. Use accordingly and if it does not do you good it will cost you nothing. Sold by Osburn & Shoemaker, Reno, Nevada. nov-odd-d&w

Worthless Stuff.

Not so fast, my friend; if you could see the strong, healthy, blooming men, women and children that have been raised from beds of sickness, suffering and almost death by the use of Hop Bitters, you would say "glorious and invaluable remedy." See another column.

Case of Lame Back Cured.

Green Valley, California, April 18, 1879.—The California Portland Cement Company, Dear Sir: My daughter Jane thanks your planters for saving her life. She suffered for two years the most intense pain and soreness in the small of the back, extending at times all along the spinal column. She was so bad that she had given up all hopes of recovery tried a dozen or more physicians all to no purpose. I am now glad to inform you that she is entirely restored to health through the use of your Plasters. Yours respectfully, J. H. WILLIAMS.

Respectable Stealing.

If there is any warrant in example, the policy shops, bunco men, and pool sellers must soon take high social rank. The deceptions practiced by some very distinguished dealers in stocks exceed in falsity and meanness the bunco game. When a man uses his social position, his church, and his family name to aid in making a profit on stocks by misleading public opinion, he may be shrewd enough to escape the law, but there is a taint in his gains that will eventually curse him.

Remember the oldest Jewelry establishment in Reno, where you can find the best and largest stock of gold watches and chains, also Jewelry, all of which are offered cheaper than any other house in Nevada or California. Call and see for yourself. I. FRANKLIN.

We have a speedy and positive cure for Catarrh, Diphtheria, Canker mouth and headache, in SHILOH'S CATARRH REMEDY. A nasal injector free with each bottle. Use it if you desire health and sweet breath. Price 50 cents. Sold by Osburn & Shoemaker, Reno, Nevada. nov-odd-d&w

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The London Spectator of September 24th says: The week has been saddened for all the English speaking men. The Queen's unprecedented act in ordering mourning for one, neither a sovereign or a relative, precisely expresses the universal feeling that an Englishman was in the place of a King, and worthy to rank with Kings. It is not an exaggeration to say of the eighty-three million people who now think in English that there are not fifty who would not have made some sacrifice to aid the late President in his struggle for life. This fact may yet affect the history of the world. All Englishmen are interested in the only Englishman who reigns by election, and who did nothing to lower an office that half of them feel must one day exist in England.

The GAZETTE to-day pays its respect to the great country north of us, and, at the same time, desires to thank the people of Surprise valley for the generous treatment extended to its representative on a recent visit. We especially thank J. J. Poor, of Bidwell, Dr. Patterson and Jesse Hironymous, of Cedarville, for information and for their time given in riding over the country and explaining its resources. Our article is so lengthy that Goose Lake valley, the railroad route and other matters must go over.

President Arthur and the Star Route.

New York, September 27.

The Times' Washington correspondent says: About two weeks before Garfield was shot, he told the present Postmaster-General and the Attorney-General that he wanted the Star route case pushed to prosecution at the earliest possible moment. It is now understood that President Arthur proposes to follow his predecessor in this respect. It is his purpose to have the investigation conducted without delay, and prosecution begun as soon as the preparation of the case will allow.

Leg Bail.

A correspondent informs the GAZETTE that the cow boys recently arrested at Battle Mountain for cattle stealing, escaped from the legal clutch after being brought back to Stillwater by the Sheriff. The escapes, according to informant, consisted of an old man and two young ones. They were accompanied by a woman, and it is supposed that she passed them the tools with which they made their escape, as they cut and dug out during the night while the valiant guardians of the peace were in slumber. This saves Churchill another heavy expense. It is said that it is next to impossible to bring a big case to trial because of the necessary draft which it would make upon the treasury.

A Good Business Man.

C. S. Martin, Reno's live real estate agent, advertises twenty pieces of town property and ten ranches for sale, in to-day's GAZETTE. Mr. Martin has about all he can do in that line, for everybody who has property, either for rent or sale, give it to Martin to handle, and when he fails it is of no use for any one else to undertake it. Mr. Martin is also agent for several first-class fire insurance companies and gives A 1 security against losses by fire. He is a Notary Public in and for Washoe county, and the boss collector of the town. Any business entrusted to his care will be promptly and intelligently attended to.

Fine Silverware.

J. Fredricks has got in a large stock of silver and plated ware. He is up with the times and ahead of the market in all his other lines of goods, and is willing to compare goods and prices with any house in the State. His store is pleasantly located and easily reached from the depot and the hotels. It is on Commercial Row west of Virginia street. He is always on hand ready to show goods and entertain visitors. It is worth while to visit the store whether you want anything or not. Read his new advertisement which appears in another column to-day.

AN EMPIRE IN EMBRYO.

THE COUNTRY LYING BETWEEN RENO AND OREGON.

The Hundred and Fifty Mile Desert and the wonders of the way-Surprise Valley's Magnificent Possibilities-Who Lives there and what they can raise.

The man who makes a trip from Reno north to the Oregon line and back ought to write a book. He cannot begin to tell all he sees in a newspaper article of reasonable length. For the first 150 miles he rides through the barren sagebrush valleys and along ranges of mountains, but even here he will find wonders that it is almost impossible to pass over without a chapter. To the right of the road lie the Pyramid mines that have helped to keep Washoe county poor for five years. Further along lies Blackrock Desert, a petrified lake in banks of hills; not even sagebrush will grow on it, and for 45 miles it stretches brown and desolate. A cave or two tempts the explorer and geological wonders are scattered all along the way. But the wonder of wonders is the beautiful lake that stretches in matchless beauty for forty miles in extent. Duck Flat and Buffalo meadows are the only places between Reno and Surprise valley that can raise feed enough to keep a horse. The meadows stretch up and down a narrow canyon for three miles. It is owned by Mr. Mulquinney, and by Clark & Martin, the well-known stock men. The first place in

SURPRISE VALLEY

Reached by the stage road is the Coppersmith brothers' fine ranch, a mile and a half west of the State line. To the south of them rises a divide that fences in the valley on that end and sixty miles north stands Bidwell mountain with two white spots on its face, which furnish a land-mark reaching all over the valley, immediately under which lies the fort. A high ridge fences off Goose Lake valley on the west and another, Long valley on the east. From Coppersmith's to Fort Bidwell, with very little interruption, the road runs through or along the west side of well cultivated land. It lies on the west side of the valley between the mountains and three lakes or large ponds, that have no outlet except into each other, at high water. The lower lake is nearly dry at this season, but its alkaline bed is quite extensive. The middle of the two is very narrow, but nearly fifteen miles long. It is not over two miles wide. The northern lake is three times as wide and about the same length. Over one fourth of the valley is water. There is some talk of draining the northern lake by cutting a canal about three miles through a sandy divide, into Middle lake. It would give about thirty thousand acres of land, which would have some alkali at first, but that would soon drain off. Surprise Valley is four times as good a piece of land as the Truckee meadows. That is, there are nearly 80,000 acres there under cultivation, against 20,000 acres here, and it is better land. It is very strong, rich land, with fully as good, and perhaps a better climate. Instead of having to dig long ditches the water comes down across it naturally and moistens it thoroughly. Dozens of creeks tumble out of the Goose Lake valley divide, and no one who has not tried it can imagine how much cheaper it is to raise crops that way. It is said that with

HAY AT FIVE DOLLARS A TON

And grain at a cent a pound the farmers would all get rich. Over 300,000 bushels of grain have been raised this season, and the price is down to 50 cents for barley and 65 for wheat. The people are very anxious to get a railroad in order to enlarge their market. At present land has no known value. Twenty dollars an acre would be considered very high. Cash is scarce, and when any property does change hands it is usually paid for in some kind of a trade. There is a great deal of government land still vacant, and it is excellent land-level, free from rock and alkali, but water is scarce and more expensive. There is a great deal of it, however, that would not need irrigation to raise profitable crops when there is a railroad there. The cultivated land in the valley lies in three bunches. Eagle Creek waters the best piece of about 20,000 acres. The town of Eagleville is located on it. North of it the lake bed and mountain pinch in nearly together, but at Cedarville the water from the canyon west of town fertilizes about 10,000 acres of elegant grain land. Nine miles north lies Lake City, on the west side of about twice as large a tract. Fort Bidwell is sixteen miles north, and there is a narrow strip of good land all the way between. At the head of the lake it widens out to five miles, and between the lake and the mountains it is about three miles. Several creeks cross this fine piece of land and all their banks are lined with heavy growths of willows. On the west side of the valley lies

BEAUTIFUL BIDWELL

With the creek running right through the town. The soldiers' quarters are on a bench of the foothills. Back of them rise the officers' residences, and above all, in a commanding location, stands the hospital, with a view that takes in the little village in the foreground, the green meadows and the bright water stretching away to the mountains. The creek is the line of the reservation, which is a mile wide and runs back three miles into the hills. The village is composed of a couple of stores, Adams' hotel, Ward & Smith's and Caldwellwood & Co.'s saloons and Weimunder & Folscher's brewery. J. M. Sanders is Postmaster. There are Masonic, Odd Fellows and Good Templar lodges. Irvin Ayres is the chief supporter of Bidwell as a business center. He came here as post-trader and has used the money he has made to develop the country. His present residence is Oakland, but his name is not erased in Bidwell. Ayers & Bucher own the big flour mill, Ayers & Caldwellwood own the stage lines to Reno and to Willow Ranch, Ayers & Lowell own the hardware store, Ayers & Wheeler own cattle in Warner valley, Ayers & Poor own more cattle in Coleman valley, and Ayres owns the Bidwell dry good store. Mr. Ayres married Miss Poor of Reno, daughter of Judge Poor and sister of Mrs. Erank Bell and Mrs. Powning and Frank and James Poor. His brother, B. Ayres is a General in the army and is now in command at Washington, D. C.

Peter Peterson and Mr. McConaughy have fine farms and handsome houses almost in the village. The latter has cattle he refused $130,000 for the other day. W. B. Whittemore has 800 acres of fine land, besides lots of cattle. James and Robert Fee have both fine places; also W. E. Monroe, John and Dan. Baatty, H. O. Jopp, J. H. Smith, P. Horan, Pardon Brown and others. At Lake City Geo. Wimer has been the head and front for many years. He is an enterprising citizen and has kept the town alive. His son keeps a bar and billiard hall. The land here is divided into small farms, 320 acres being the largest. T. Garrett, Wood, Menscotte, Wallace, Bare, Barber brothers and Jacobs have nice places. Mr. Hamlen is postmaster and storekeeper. He will have J. C. Hagerman to bid against now. G. W. Johnson keeps the hotel. There is a wagon shop, Good Templars lodge, etc. Cedarville is the busiest place north of Reno.

CRESSLER AND BONNER,

Its leading firm, are by all odds the big men of the valley. They came in early (in 1867) and have been prudent and wise. They have been conservative, and although always ready to help those who had a business that was needed, yet they have withheld their support from adventurers who wanted to go into risky business. As a consequence failures are almost unknown, and so healthy has been the trade of the valley that no one has taken advantage of the Bankruptcy Act. The firm is now out of business except banking. They are preparing to open a National bank, and it will be a great benefit. M. D. Haynes & Co. have taken their hardware and grocery trade, and Kissler Brothers & Co. their dry goods business, and they are partners in both houses. Dr. Patterson, the leading physician of the valley, resides here. He is a man of affairs and a State builder. C. W. Lee has a stove and tin store. He is building a nice house. J. C. Wellcome keeps a large stock of saddles etc. for the cattle men. J. C. Jones is the bootmaker; A. Joseph carries on a wagon shop, and J. Wiley a blacksmith shop. Jesse Hironymous has a fine hotel and is building a new front. S. B. Moller has a good hotel and a fine orchard; also a feed stable. Romero & Purcell and J. P. Adams have saloons. There are Masonic, Odd Fellows and Good Templars lodges, a Methodist church worth $3,500, which is presided over by J. W. Pendleton, whose father lives in Reno. In the neighborhood Cressler & Bonner have 320 acres of the finest land in the valley. C. S. Mayfield has one of the best little places there. W. D.

Hadspeth has fine land and fine cattle. R. B. Whittaker, J. Bitner, C. T. Thorp and R. Buck are settled close together on a nice piece of ground. W. Dodson has a good farm at Cedarville and a dairy in Oregon. Dr. Patterson has 1,200 acres of rich land in one place and 300 acres in another. Joshua Brown joins him on the south with a valuable ranch of 800 acres. I. Lendemann has another good ranch. McClintock & Swineford, formerly of Sierra Valley, have a fine ranch. They also have cattle in 49 canyon. G. W. Raines have a very productive meadow, one of the best pieces in the county. Gee has a fine house at Eagleville and a nice ranch. Mr. Hornbeck is also handsomely located.

Joe Jones, of Reno, has the store, W. H. Borman a wagon shop at Eagleville or Eagle Creek, as it is called there. At the south end of Surprise, Elijah Richardson, of Sierra valley, now owns the old Bare place, and runs his sheep on the hill where they do well. W. Copper-smith has six hundred acres of good land. It is safe to say that this great valley, sixty miles long and fifteen miles wide, will some day be worth five times what it is now, and have five times the inhabitants. It is about the altitude of Reno, but a sharp ridge on the west keeps out the wind and frost and snow. It raises excellent apples, vegetables and berries, and will be a popular place when it can be reached. The people are intelligent, energetic and virtuous. There is not an improper house in the valley, and theft and crime are very rare. A loafer is a curiosity. The pursuits of horse and cattle raising have given the people different natures and habits from the old eastern States, but withal they live much as people used to there before the days of railroads. Daily papers are scarce. Pianos are curiosities, there being only three or four in the valley, and there are a good many boys and girls who never saw a railroad, telegraph or steamboat. There is less fret and hurry, more hospitality and generosity than in the great business cities.

The brisk fall sale still continues at the Mechanics' store. The people are taking advantage of the low prices in a way which is profitable to them and is fast making room for the new stock soon to arrive. Joe Wise, the gentlemanly salesman, is always on hand, and his manner of doing business seems to be entirely acceptable to patrons. The sale will continue for a few days yet.

THE DAY OF MOURNING.

How the Late President Garfield's Funeral Day Was Observed in Reno and Wadsworth.

Yesterday was observed as a day of mourning in Reno. All the stores and saloons were closed, as well as the Postoffice, telegraph and express offices, newspaper offices, etc. Almost all public places and many private residences were draped in mourning, and many flags were flying at half mast. The funeral ceremonies were observed by a large procession, forming in the school grounds and marching slowly to the sound of music to the Theater, which was crowded with people. The music and address there were very impressive and all the ceremonies well arranged and carried out. There was much feeling manifested among all classes of citizens, and the tribute to the great and gentle dead was universal, spontaneous and sincere. Appropriate services were held in all the churches on Sunday, and both the singing and sermons devoted to the late President.

AT WADSWORTH.

WADSWORTH, Sept. 26, 1881.
 TO THE GAZETTE:—At 10:36 A. M. precisely the minute gun announced the opening of the obsequies of the late President Garfield. The ladies having tastefully draped Gladding's Hall, the people assembled at the school house, where the procession was formed, headed by muffled drums and fifes, and amid the tolling of bells and firing of minute guns, proceeded to the hall. The procession consisted of school children and ladies and gentlemen, numbering 150 persons in all, with Messrs. Lee, Sawyer, Nugent, Holbrook, Proctor and Felling as pall bearers. Mr. McPherson, as chairman of the day, superintended the ceremonies which were ably conducted by Mr. Fowler, with Mrs. Don Tillow as organist and a large corps of ladies as vocalists. A very nice address, lasting one hour, was delivered, after which the assemblage dispersed. The day was all that could be desired, the weather being cool and every detail passing off without accident.

The following resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS—It has pleased our Heavenly Father to remove from us our much beloved and esteemed President, James Abram Garfield; be it Resolved—That in humble submission to His Divine will, we deeply regret and most sacredly mourn the loss of one who through his patriotism and devotion to truth and justice had won the noblest position within the power of the nation to bestow.

Resolved—That we sincerely sympathize with the family of our deceased President in their deep bereavement, and commend them for consolation to Him who orders all things for the best and whose chastisements are meant in mercy.

Resolved—That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the RENO GAZETTE and Journal for publication.
 (Signed) COMMITTEE.

Kathleen Mavourneen.

The Robert McWade comedy company seems to be entirely worthy of patronage. The company was unfortunate in having selected Monday night for their first performance. Notwithstanding the small attendance last evening the troupe gave an excellent performance of Rip Van Winkle, and the auditors were more than pleased. To-night the company will give Kathleen Mavourneen an exceedingly popular play, and one in which the McWade company has every opportunity to display its powers. The GAZETTE hopes that the company may be given a warm reception to-night.

The McWade company will occupy the Nevada Theater during Fair week with an entire change of programme every other night. The company is anxious to show the people of Reno what their claims are upon theatre going people. Go and see them to-night.

Keep up Appearances.

The old pioneer Nathan is still on dock. If any poorly dressed man will just step around and see the new goods which he is now unpacking that man will dress up if he never saves a cent. Nathan will not fail to sell this large stock promptly, and makes the prices suit the times.

Milk Route Change.

A. T. Rice has sold his milk wagon No. 2, and route, to Mr. Moore, and requests his customers on the line of said route to give him their patronage. See advertisement.

THE PISTOL.

STOCKHOLDERS' MEETING WHICH RESULTED IN A SHOOTING SCRAPE WITH PROBABLE FATAL RESULTS.

D. W. BALCH AND J. C. SCOVILLE THE MURDERED MEN.

The Keen Contest Over the Control of the Nevada and Oregon, Results in a Shooting Scrape.

The town was thrown into a ferment this afternoon by the street news that a shooting scrape had taken place at the meeting of the stockholders of the Nevada and Oregon railroad. It was learned that S. C. Scoville, ex-Secretary, and D. W. Balch, under Colonel Moore in the work of construction, had been shot. Further than this could not be learned, but it called to the town to discuss the matter.

It has long been known that there was a contest in progress over the control of the road, but the merits of this controversy have not been known, except to the trustees and stockholders. To-day has been set for a meeting of stockholders to remove trustees. At one o'clock the hour set for the meeting the shooting occurred. A GAZETTE reporter gives the following

STORY OF AN EYE WITNESS.

About 12:30 the trustees, Messrs. John Sunderland, E. D. Wheeler, Trenmor Coffin, James McMechan, G. L. Woods and C. A. Bragg, were present, and also some laborers who were asking for their time. Some one after going outside, came in and said:

"I don't know where Moore is, but he will be here at 1 o'clock."

Moore, Balch, Scoville and Fowler came in, and Cogan was there and as Fowler came in he said:

"The meeting is called to order."

With that he went over to trustee McMechan and grasping him by the collar tried to eject him from the room. Some one else shouted:

"Come on boys!"

I saw Cogan coming into the room with his men and a pistol in his hand. Then the firing began and I got out as soon as possible. I saw one other pistol, but could not say who shot.

Other parties present say that Cogan had no pistol.

ANOTHER STATEMENT.

The stockholders of the Nevada and Oregon Railroad company met at 1 o'clock this afternoon for the purpose of electing a new board of trustees. Upon entering the office they found E. D. Wheeler, Trenmor Coffin, James McMechan and John Sunderland members of the old board of trustees. It was proposed by a stockholder to call the meeting to order upon this being mentioned, Wheeler, Coffin McMechan and Sunderland proposed to organize the meeting immediately and take possession of it. Some stockholder present stated that these men were not stockholders, (meaning McMechan, Wheeler, Coffin and Sunderland.) Some one made mention of bringing men in to put them out. Upon this Wheeler, Coffin and McMechan drew their pistols and began firing.

THE THIRD STATEMENT

Is to the effect that Messrs. Moore, Fowler and others entered the office about 1 o'clock. President Wheeler said, "Be seated, gentlemen."

Fowler then said, "These men are not stockholders, and this is a stockholder's meeting. Will they withdraw?"

[He meant Messrs. Wheeler, McMechan, Coffin and Sunderland.] No one moved, whereupon Fowler said: "If they do not go we will bring men to put them out."

Fowler and Balch then tried to eject Messrs. McMechan and Coffin successively. At this point Cogan came in with a pistol in his hand and the firing commenced.

RESULT OF THE FAY.

It is impossible to do more than give some of the many conflicting stories, but the results of the affair are sufficiently certain. Ex-Secretary Scoville is now lying at his home vomiting blood, and it is not believed that he can live. His physician believes the ball has passed through his stomach.

D. W. Balch was shot through the lungs and through the right wrist. He was taken to the Depot Hotel, and was in such a precarious condition that it was deemed necessary to take his ante mortem statement.

THE ARRESTS.

Immediately after the affray Messrs. Wheeler, Coffin, McMechan and Fowler were arrested, and after putting in an appearance at the Justice Court were released under bail of $5,000 each. Messrs. Woods, Sunderland and Bragg were also taken in custody, but were released on their own recognizance. The participants in the affair were all accosted by the GAZETTE reporters, but refused to be interviewed. Four pistols were discovered at the Justice Court. McMechan's pistol had three empty chambers.

THE CONTEST.

GAZETTE readers know of the stockholders' meeting which was called for to-day. It seems that trustees McMechan, Coffin, Wheeler and Sunderland issued to themselves 50,000 shares of stock, at a recent meeting. Contractor Moore thereupon brought suit and enjoined them from voting or transferring that stock. The case was then transferred to the U. S. District Court. When the meeting was called to-day, E. B. Wheeler had in his pocket an order from the United States District Court, E. W. Hillyer presiding, modifying the injunction that issued from the First Judicial District some days ago, Court enjoining Wheeler, Coffin, McMechan and Sunderland from voting their stock at the stockholders' meeting that was to have been held to-day, so far as the voting of the stock went, and allowing the defendants to vote their stock, but he did not produce it or mention it in the meeting.

The ante mortem statements of both Balch and Scoville were taken this afternoon. Balch says that Wheeler shot him. Wheeler says he had no pistol. There were four. There are four pistols in the possession of the officers which are credited to McMechan, Coffin and Sunderland. The fourth was found on the floor.

Judge Wheeler went to Steamboat this afternoon.

The physicians say that the wounded men will both die, there being barely a hope for either.

The officers were looking for Cogan this afternoon.

PERSONAL.

R. W. Parry is in from Pyramid.

Sheriff Walker returned yesterday morning from Sacramento.

R. H. Wright of the Treasury Department was here yesterday.

J. N. and J. B. Russell have arrived in Reno and will open a marble shop.

D. C. Wheeler the well known rancher from Lassen county is in town.

Harry Hunter of Carson has gone to Chicago. Mrs. H. accompanied him to Reno.

Mrs. B. H. McClure is visiting friends in Reno after a prolonged stay at Dutch Flat, her old home.

Gen. Murphy and Controller Halleck came in last night and went to Winnemucca this morning.

Sheriff Ben Fitch, of Elko, was in Reno on Saturday night. He thinks about going to New York on Tuesday or Wednesday next.

Pandora's Box.

It would not be an exaggeration to call the Reno White House a male fashion emporium. There are more transformation scenes in that house than were ever seen in Niblo's Gardens. Honest ranchers disappear within the doors to emerge as elegant gentlemen of fashion. Aged men, who care little for display, are turned out with the well-proportioned shape of youth. Bodie miners lose their mountainous look and take on a metropolitan air. Printers are made to look like millionaires and bankers to represent Vanderbilt, by the infinite resources of this mammoth establishment. Crooked people are made straight and plain men find themselves pleasant to the eye. Even the small boy talks of the time when by a judicious dabbling in old bottles and socks his capital will permit him to visit the White House and make those appropriate purchases which his station requires. Everybody goes to the White House and comes away pleased.

The New Board.

At the stockholders meeting of the Nevada and Oregon R. R. this afternoon the following were elected Directors for the ensuing year: C. A. Bragg, H. J. McMurray, D. W. Balch, F. F. Fowler, Geo. L. Woods, A. H. Manning and S. C. Scoville. The votes were cast after the shooting occurred, and the meeting adjourned.

NEW TO-DAY.

Notice to Milk Customers.

I wish to inform the public of Reno that I have sold my milk wagon No. 1 to Mr. Moore, and also the route over which said wagon delivered milk, and all the customers taking milk from that wagon will confer a favor on me by patronizing Mr. Moore, as they will find him a reliable and trustworthy man to deal with. Mr. Moore will also furnish his customers with butter, eggs, chickens and turkeys. I will continue in the milk business permanently, all the same, and run milk wagon No. 1 myself, as usual. A. T. RICE, Reno, Sept. 10, 1881. South Side Dairyman. sep27-1f
